ROTARY INFORMATION

2012/13 MEETING PLAN

A few key take-outs from the previous Club Visioning session.

1. Let's find that Community Project that everyone can become involved in.
2. We need to sell the benefits of being a Rotarian to the community. Let's be clear on our 'product'.
3. Interesting guest speakers and topics are important.
4. Having a defined program is important.

A months program will look like this.

Week 1. A guest speaker arranged by our 2012/13 Program Director John Davis. Please feel free to offer suggestions.

Week 2. Same as week 1.

Week 3. A member will volunteer to either speak or provide a guest speaker. This will be by arrangement with the Program Director and will not be an ad hoc arrangement.

Week 4. All reports, Secretary, Treasurer, Club Service, service Projects etc will be covered here followed by some fun such as a quiz or similar.

Week 5. Where there are 5 Tuesdays, this will be our Club Assembly, usually at the Pavilion.

PRESIDENTS REMARKS - .

- ◆ Our Changeover will be at the Golf Club on Sat. 7th July. That's now 5 days, but I'm still not counting!
- ◆ Soto and Jane attended the Whyalla Norrie Changeover last Saturday and had a good time.

INDUCTION

- ◆ Soto had one of those pleasurable evenings when a President inducts a new member. This time it was Paul Freimanis. Paul has attended a number of meetings and has already contributed during the Visioning process. Paul's vocation is Occupational Health and Safety. Welcome Paul.

Paul Freimanis with Soto & Jari

BIRTHDAYS & ANNIVERSARIES

- ▶ Jenny Odgers had a birthday on June 30th.
- ▶ Glen Eden turned 80 last Sunday.
- ▶ David Owens turned 60 during the week.
- ▶ The Whyalla Rotary Club turned 57 on 1st July.
- ▶ Sue Clements birthday on 9th July.

HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Glen's birthday was the most exciting he's had of the 80 so far.
- ▶ Perry enjoyed a helicopter ride at Lyndoch on the weekend.
- ▶ Jack was impressed with a demonstration of a new computerised gear changer for pushbikes.

REPORTS

- ▶ Jane did a final run through of preparations for Saturday night's changeover.
- ▶ Soto had a request from John Davis to 'get the visioning finished.' We decided that we would do this on 17th July and wrap up at our Club Assembly on 31st July.
- ▶ Glen has followed up the last few outstanding Local Contact Directory payments.

RAFFLE

- ▶ Raised $51 and was won by Brian Moodie.

CLUB HISTORY

Jane read us the notes from the 1st Bulletin on our website. Bulletin No. 2722 on 7th October 2008, when Jari Peltonen was President. Jari mentioned that District were looking for expressions of interest to host the GSE Team from Korea. Chairman Tim Clements introduced Jan Cole, an aerosol artist who explained the difference between aerosol art and graffiti.

SERGEANT

This was Jack's last hurrah and he didn't disappoint. He noted the contrast between Paul who was looking forward to his partner Jane returning after 2 weeks away and Michele who was looking forward to time on her own, with husband John away for two weeks. Jane and Glen both had to pay as apparently Jane's husband David and the PDG are both still celebrating their milestone birthdays for far too long after the event. Thanks Jack for an entertaining year.

GUEST SPEAKER

Michele Hart - Good Morning Vietnam!

Michele and Paulette recently visited a very hot and humid Vietnam and despite not making the group tour they booked for, ended up with their own personal tour guide who chauffeured them around Hue, Hoi An and Halong Bay. In the hot and humid weather they visited many places of interest including replicas of a few famous landmarks more well known in other places of the world.

One of the most beautiful places is Ha Long Bay with its majestic peaks rising straight from the ocean. Michele said this was truly breathtaking, despite the hot and humid weather.

Ha Long Bay

Michele also managed to overcome some of her expectations about the local cuisine, which on many occasions she quite enjoyed, in the hot and humid weather.

Again, a most enjoyable presentation despite much humorous banter amongst Rotarians.
